JOSHUA TREE NATIONAL PARK, Twentynine Palms, California – Joshua Tree National Park and the Morongo Basin Transit Authority will not be offering the free Roadrunner Shuttle Service in the fall of 2019. The two-year funded pilot program concluded in May 2019 and it has not been funded to continue into the next visitor season. Both the Joshua Tree National Park and Morongo Basin Transit Authority look forward to revisiting this service in the future with revised routes and schedules.
